- E. Lot. Lot shall mean a discreet, numbered, subdivided parcel of property as depicted on the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision, as recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Sweetwater County, Wyoming.
- F. Owner. Owner shall mean the record owner of a lot, and does not include those having an interest in any lot as security for the performance of an obligation.

- G. Property. Property shall mean the real property described in the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision as recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Sweetwater County, Wyoming.

III. LAND USE AND BUILDING TYPE

Only new construction or alteration of existing construction shall be permitted. Except as specifically provided to the contrary herein, the property shall be used for residential purposes only. No building shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on the property other than one single family dwelling an additional private garage which may be separate from the dwelling, an additional out building not to exceed a height of 25 feet. All construction shall be compatible with existing structures within the subdivision. No modular or manufactured housing is permitted unless permanently attached to cement or other acceptable foundation. In addition, the following restrictions are applicable:

1. No galvanized metal roofs shall be allowed on any buildings.
2. All homes must have a minimum of one thousand five hundred fifty (1550) square feet of living space on the ground floor, exclusive of attached garage and porches.
3. No buildings shall be erected contrary to applicable Sweetwater County, Wyoming building and zoning regulations.
4. The immediate area around the dwelling on any lot in the subdivision shall be landscaped within one year of construction of the dwelling.
5. If any lots in the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision are further subdivided, all covenants, conditions and restrictions established by these Protective Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision shall be applicable to the lots into which existing lots are subdivided.

IV. PROHIBITED STRUCTURES AND CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS

1. No trailer home, mobile home, camper, skid structure, garage, outbuilding or any other structure of a temporary or mobile nature, shall be used in the area as a place of permanent residence or habitation
2. No structures, including fences and corals, shall be constructed in the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision using railroad ties or timber slabs. The exterior of all wooden structures, shall be painted, stained or otherwise coated.

V. SIGNS AND LIGHTS

Except with the written consent of the Developer as to dimensions or purpose, no signs or exterior lights of any character shall be placed or maintained on any lot except:

1. A sign identifying the owner or occupant thereof, no dimension of which exceeds three (3) feet. Said signs shall not be illuminated unless affixed to the exterior of the main dwelling.

2. Any light used to illuminate parking areas, grounds, building exteriors or used for any other purpose shall be so arranged as to direct the light away from any adjacent or nearby properties and away from the vision of passing motorists.
3. Christmas lights and ornaments will be permitted during the holiday season.

VI. UTILITY SERVICES

Availability of water and electricity is as noted on the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision. All utility service lines and other service lines (such as cable television) shall be underground or located inside the boundaries of buildings. Lot owners are responsible for bringing utilities from lot boundaries to points of consumption within the lots.

VII. UTILITY EASEMENTS

Easements for installation and maintenance of utilities are reserved and are shown on the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision. No structure shall be placed or permitted to remain within the limits of the easement which may endanger or interfere with the installation and maintenance of utilities. Landscaping of the easement area shall be maintained by the owner of the property.

VIII. SEWER AND SEPTIC SYSTEMS

Lot owners shall obtain septic permits from Sweetwater County Health.

IX. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

No business, commercial, or manufacturing enterprise, or any enterprise of any kind or nature that will generate any additional street traffic in the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision, whether or not conducted for profit, shall be operated, maintained or conducted on or in any property in the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision. Further, no dwelling or any part thereof may be used as a boarding or rooming house; provided, however, that the main dwelling on any lot within the Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision may be leased by the owner for use as a single family dwelling.

X. ENFORCEMENT OF COVENANTS

The Amended Final Plat Washam Creek Subdivision will not have an architectural or homeowner control committee. Instead, any homeowner or homeowners within the addition may through legal process enjoin construction of and/or require removal of improvements which do not comply with the provisions of this declaration. If suit is filed to enforce a provision or provisions of the declaration then the party(s) against whom this declaration is being enforced shall be liable for and shall pay the attorney fees and court costs of the enforcing party(s).

ALL PERSONS WHO SIGN THIS DECLARATION AND ALL PERSONS WHO MAY HEREAFTER PURCHASE PROPERTY WITHIN THE AMENDED FINAL PLAT WASHAM CREEK SUBDIVISION ARE SPECIFICALLY ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING:

- If you attempt to erect an improvement which does not comply with the provisions of this declaration, this Paragraph X provides that a Court may issue an order forcing you to stop and forcing you to remove that which has been constructed.
- If you erect an improvement which does not comply with provisions of this declaration, this Paragraph X provides that a Court may require you to tear it down. You will therefore lose the cost of construction, as well as incur the cost of removal.
- If a lawsuit is required to enforce the provisions of this declaration against you, this Paragraph X provides that a Court may require you to pay not only your own attorney fees to defend, but also the attorney fees of the party(s) enforcing the provisions of this declaration, and costs of suit. VIOLATION OF ANY PROVISION OF THIS DECLARATION WILL BE VERY EXPENSIVE FOR THE PARTY(S) VIOLATING.
- In the event any property owner is uncertain whether construction of an improvement would violate the provisions of this declaration, the property owner is encouraged to speak to other homeowners in the addition. Consent in writing of a majority of homeowners (at the time consent is sought) to proposed construction of an improvement shall be conclusive proof that the proposed construction complies with the provisions of this declaration. For purposes of determining a majority of homeowners the following rules apply:
 - a. Each lot on which a house has been constructed, and a certificate of occupancy issued, shall have one (1) vote; and,
 - b. Any person having a recorded ownership interest in the home (exclusive of mortgages and other parties with security interests) is authorized to vote the lot, regardless of whether there are other co-owners.

The above provisions shall not be construed as limiting the manners and methods through which the provisions of this declaration may be enforced. In addition to the enforcement options provided above, enforcement of this declaration may be by limited proceedings for recovery of damages, against any person violating or attempting to violate any of the provisions hereof. As provided above, in any suit to enforce a provision or provisions of this declaration, the party against whom this declaration is being enforced shall be liable for and shall pay the attorney fees and court costs of the enforcing party.

XI. LEGAL PROVISIONS

- A. Non-waiver. No delay on the part of the Declarant or any other person in the exercise of any right, power, or remedy contained herein shall be construed as a waiver thereof or acquiescence therein.

Water Service: Water service to the subdivision lots will be supplied and maintained by Manila City, Utah.

Sewer Service: At this time there is no public sewer service. The lot will require septic tanks systems, as is currently required for Cedar Cliff Estate and all adjoining properties.

The subdivision will not have any private roads to maintain. Entry to each lot will be from the existing Manila City public road which is maintained by Manila City and Daggett County, Utah.

There will be no public land or roads within the subdivision. The project will be done in one phase.

Property adjoining to the east is zoned RR.

Property adjoining to the west is zoned RR.

The current use of property adjoining both east and west is residential.

The property south of state line road which adjoins the subdivision to the south and is Manila, UT city road is owned by David G. & Jeannene R. Johnson Trust. (See schedule of adjacent property owners.) This property is not subdivided.

Culinary water line is 8 inches in diameter and runs 1500 gallons per minute and is located on the south side of State Line Road.
